Middleby Marshall Receives Excellence in Partnership Award from Domino's Pizza India

Elgin, Ill., November 16, 2007—Middleby Marshall, the world leader in conveyor ovens, has been awarded the 2007 Excellence in Partnership Award from Domino's Pizza India, Ltd.

Middleby Marshall has partnered with Domino's India since their first pizza store opened in New Delhi in 1996. Today, India is the fastest growing country in the Domino's network.

"We are honored to receive this award from a true partner—Domino's India," said Middleby Marshall President Mark Sieron. "Our ovens have helped Domino's establish a reputation in India for being the home delivery specialist capable of delivering pizzas within 30 minutes to a community of loyal customers from its entire chain of stores around the country."

Industry data from September 2007 confirms people across India are consuming more than three million pizzas a month, and the monthly sales figures are projected to double in the next four years across India. Since inception, Domino's Pizza India Ltd. has proceeded to become one of the largest and fastest growing international food chains in South Asia. Today, Domino's Pizza India has grown into a countrywide network of over 165 outlets in 33 cities and is the leader in the fast food delivery segment. Ever since it was established, Domino's Pizza India has maintained its position of market leadership with its constant product innovation.

Currently there are more than 15,000 Middleby Marshall ovens installed in Domino's restaurants around the world, cooking more than 1 million pizzas per day. For more information on Middleby Marshall please visit www.middleby-marshall.com.
